Excerpt of pertinent information :

1. Pamfil Seicaru, former editor of Curentul, has established himself in Paris. On his arrival Seicaru resided with Major Ion Lupoia, a former officer of the Gendarmerie and current supporter of General Nicolae Radescu. Seicaru has conferred at length with Vasile Boldeanu, an Iron Guard leader and priest. He is reported to have expressed his sympathy with the Iron Guard and to have declared his intention of writing a volume on the late Corneliu Codreanu, the leader of the Guard who was shot during the reign of Carol.
2. In October 1948 Seicaru wrote an open letter to General Nicolae Radescu, from Palma de Mallorca, in which he castigated those Romanians who led and took part in the coup d'etat of 23 August 1944. During January this document was mimeographed and distributed to Romanian refugees in all parts of the world.

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
